I've never felt such peace. I can breathe and my worries are left behind. This farm brings an awareness [to myself and children], I never thought possible. My boys have learned better skills to help self-regulate, are more kind and respectful to me. They learned how to find words for their emotions before it turned into negative behaviors.

My daughter's biggest roadblock to joy has been confidence. Often times she hides her eyes and her voice from others. Cultivating Hope has gently challenged, and brought her into new confidence. Once terrified of the goats at the farm, she now leads them with confidence. Once unable to find things she was proud of, she bursts into our home after a day at the farm speaking of accomplishments through a wide smile.

Cultivating Hope

Memory Lane Farm, Inc.

What We Do

Our 90-minute weekly sessions utilize many therapeutic aspects of the farm including:

Connecting with horses, goats and chickens, gardening, nature walks & activities, crafts, special projects and chores.

Individualized goals to promote confidence, problem solving, personal growth and empowerment.

Respect for self, people, animals, plants and the environment are developed and strengthened.

Purpose

We provide farm-based opportunities to enhance lives through learning, exploring and self-discovery. Our relational programs are a unique hybrid of education, mentoring, and inspiration, using the wonders of nature, agriculture and animals.

Participants are referred to the farm by teachers, pastors and other professionals.

While the activities at Memory Lane Farm are therapeutic in nature, we do not offer professional therapy/counseling services.

Memory Lane Farm, Inc. is an IRS 501c3 public charity. All donations are tax-deductible.

Who We Serve

We serve children (ages 5+) teens, adults and families who may have experienced:

Anxiety, depression, trauma, or going through a difficult season

Lack of confidence, fear, or social skill challenges

Anger, bullying, negative self-talk/behaviors or in need of mentoring by a caring support team.
